

Mark // As Long As I Remember

I don't wanna even thank you
I don't wanna even show...
Oh, show what you like

As long as I remember
As far as I can see
Those silly people tell me:
"Do not use your senses, let them free"

As long as I remember
As far as I can see
No one hears the simple truth
The senses are like a galaxy...

And when they come in to my world
When they come to me
Without words and emotions
With no Thanks, without fee
They bring me the music
And I always agree
As long as remember
As far as I can see...

My young days are on the run
Through these days I ramble on
With no help of someone else
With no choice of something special
Shame to cry
Shame to sigh on this, my dear friend
Lay your life on fatal sheet
Inner strength is what you need
Open up your world for sensibility
Take another breath and so breathe.

I don't wanna even thank you
I don't wanna even show...
Oh, show what you like
